

A scattered origin, a single destination

The ten commonest birthplaces and the ten commonest residences, counted over the 1,070 people whose birthplace the volume prints and the 1,057 whose residence it does. Tunis heads both lists, but it holds 69% of the residences against 13% of the births: the rest of the elite came from somewhere else and converged on it.

Born at (1,070 people named a place)

Living at (1,057 people named a place)

