

For half the localities the volume records no amenity at all

Infrastructure named across the 737 locality entries. Flags are not exclusive — 120 entries carry two or more — and the highlighted bar counts the entries carrying none, which is 49% of them. These columns record what Lambert chose to print about a place, not what stood there; the post office is rare here because he rarely mentioned one, not because Tunisia had six.

